To Whom It May Concern

NIPPON STEEL TRADING CORPORATION

We Have Established the " Supply Chain Sustainability Code of Conduct"

We are pleased to announce that Nippon Steel Trading Corporation (hereinafter referred to as "our company") has established the "Supply Chain Sustainability Code of Conduct" (hereinafter referred to as "these guidelines").

Our company group operates a wide range of businesses around the world, and in the context of increasing demands for consideration of human rights and the environment within our company and throughout the entire supply chain, we believe that efforts towards realizing a sustainable society are of utmost importance.

These guidelines serve as a framework to promote the construction of a sustainable supply chain that takes into account labor conditions and the natural environment and will be advanced together with our suppliers and other business partners. By requesting your understanding and implementation of these guidelines, we aim to achieve sustainable development together with our business partners.

We kindly ask for your continued understanding and cooperation.
